The "running" was first discovered by the surgeons at sick quarters, who found many sore limbs among the plebes." When Commandant Badger ook the matter in hand, the upperlass men promised to stop the practice, and if it continues after this warning, the discipline that follows probably will be severe. Some of the 'plebes" who do not use tobacco were made to smoke, and became dreadfully sick. One, whose ancestor was a dis-tinguished American naval officer, was made to buckle on a tin sword, stand on a table and go through the actions of an officer in a naval battle. Another, whose grandfather was a celebrated statesman and orator, was required to mount the rostrum and deliver an oration to the upper-class men.
